Are you interested in stand-up comedy, spoken word, storytelling or poetry slams? Will you need to interview, meet new people or present in class? If so, please join us as we pair up with Tellin' Tales Theatre for a workshop designed to help you share your ideas, thoughts, stories and jokes with an audience—or just come and listen and laugh and get to know other kids. The first half of the workshop will be devoted to fun and games around developing a story or stand-up routine and tips for performance. The second half will be a low-key open mic where you can practice your new found skills. We hope to see you there!
